ADDENDUM: CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION; HHM:PSJ; 4/10/87

By the attached teletype Little Rock Division advises that they are conducting a briefing concerning the arrest of the subjects in the WATPAC investigation. This meeting will be held on April 15, 1987, in Little Rock. April 14 and 16 should be scheduled as travel days for this briefing. All offices which are expected to make arrest in this matter are requested to have a representative present. Little Rock has also requested that a representative from the Domestic Terrorism Unit (DTU), Criminal Investigative Division (CID); the Hostage Rescue Team (HRT); and the Civil Rights Unit, CID have a representative present.

Little Rock is anticipating returning an indictment of numerous persons involved in right-wing terrorism, sometime during the week of April 20, 1987, and their arrest will immediately follow the return of the indictment. Fourteen individuals are to be indicted for seditious conspiracy and other related charges however there will only be eight arrests in this matter, as some of the subjects are already incarcerated.

Divisions which are to make arrests and which are requested to have a representative present for the Little Rock briefing are Butte, Dallas, Detroit, Kansas City, Oklahoma City and St. Louis. Denver Division is requested to have a representative present in that the Little Rock indictment will be issued simultaneously with an indictment from Denver which will be a civil rights indictment for the murder of Alan Berg. Three of the individuals to be indicted in Little Rock will also be indicted in Denver. The Terrorism Section, CID, recommends that FBIHQ support this conference by sending a representative from the DTU.

IT IS RECOGNIZED BY LITTLE ROCK THAT THIS IS A COMPLEX CONSPIRACY WITH INDIVIDUAL ACTS APPEARING TO BE OF MINIMAL EFFECT ON THE TOTAL CONSPIRACY; HOWEVER, THE SUBTLETY OF THESE ACTS, WHEN UNDERSTOOD AND COUPLED WITH MORE CLEARLY DEFINED ACTS, PRESENTS A WELL-WOVEN WEB OF AN INTENTIONALLY-DESIGNED CONSPIRACY TO OVERTHROW THE U. S. GOVERNMENT BY FORCE AND VIOLENCE.

U. S. ATTORNEY J. MICHAEL FITZHUGH, WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS, IS AWARE OF THE SENSITIVITY OF THE COOPERATING WITNESSES' SITUATIONS AS WELL AS OTHER FACTORS WHICH MANDATE THAT THIS MATTER BE HANDLED EXPEDITIOUSLY AND THEREFORE DESIRES TO PRESENT THIS MATTER TO THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY SEEKING AN INDICTMENT AS SOON AS DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE APPROVAL FOR SAME CAN BE GAINED.

3. NAME: RICHARD GIRNT BUTLER-
ALIASES:
SSA:
DOB: February 23, 1918
POB:
FBI NO.: Unknown
HEALTH: No known problems

RICHARD GIRNT BUTLER, 68, head of Aryan Nations and pastor of the Church of Jesus Christ Christian, is a former California aerospace engineer who moved to Hayden Lake, Idaho, in the mid-1970's. He is viewed as the spiritual leader of the racist movement. BUTLER apparently got his start in organized racism as a disciple of the late Wesley Swift, an early popularizer of the Identity religious movement in the United States. Identity is the Nazi-like belief that Jews are devils, whites are the true Israelites referred to in the Bible, and the two groups are locked in a mortal struggle for world domination. Non-whites are simply subhuman pawns in this cosmic battle. Upon this premise BUTLER built a church of hate and a small racist army in the late 1970's. The group numbers no more than a few hundred members nationwide, but its influence is widely felt through BUTLER's prolific publishing activities. In addition to numerous flyers and tracts, BUTLER publishes a periodical newsletter, "Calling Our Nation." BUTLER preaches that violence may be necessary to "take back" the United States from the Jews and minorities whom he believes now control it. To recruit more soldiers, BUTLER has encouraged his small staff to "minister" to white prisoners in the country's penal institutions, from which new Aryan Nations recruits come. In the past few years BUTLER's personal and corporate tax records have come under scrutiny by state and federal tax officials, and the state and federal tax-exempt status of his "church" has been revoked. In the Order trial testimony BUTLER was said to have received stolen money from the terrorist group. Several Order members came from Aryan Nations. BUTLER travels periodically and has made several trips to the south in the last two years. He met with racist leaders in Alabama, Georgia, Arkansas and North Carolina and marched and rallied with the now-defunct White Patriot Party in Canton, Georgia in 1985. In January 1986, BUTLER, [redacted] and [redacted] met in Pulaski, Tennessee, for discussions held in connection with a march against the King holiday. Misdemeanor charges related to a cross burning in California in 1983 were recently reinstated against him.

RICHARD GIRNT BUTLER hosted the July, 1983, Aryan Nations Congress at Hayden Lake, Idaho. BUTLER also attended at least two "private leadership meetings," one of which was held in his house. During the second private meeting BUTLER agreed with the proposals that the right wing organizations needed to unite in an effort to form a new Aryan Nation in the northwest.

The Aryan Nations Church is dedicated to the ascendancy of the "Aryan" race and shares a view common to many on the Church's end of the political spectrum; that a cataclysmic race war is inevitable. BUTLER regularly so preaches and his group sports swastikas, Nazi salutes, and other Nazi emblems and traits. BUTLER advocates the concept of "Territorial Imperative." BUTLER interprets this idea as the removal of five northwest states from the United States and the establishment of a separate Aryan nation.

[redacted] supra, advised upon interview on January 13, 1987, that RICHARD GIRNT BUTLER during the private meetings conducted at Hayden Lake, Idaho, in July, 1983, made similar comments as [redacted] concerning proposed activity, and the necessity of raising up God's army to take back the nation. BUTLER stated "we either hang together or we hang separately." BUTLER commented, "Our nation has been taken from us and we are going to take it back."

b6
b7D

On January 8, 1987, [redacted] K^l Klux Klan leader, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed and advised that he introduced [redacted] to RICHARD BUTLER in the fall of 1982 at a Ku Klux Klan function in Texas.

[redacted] had previously attended the Aryan Nations Congress at Hayden Lake, Idaho in July, 1982, where he became a member of the Aryan Nations because of his respect and admiration for the Rev. RICHARD BUTLER and that which BUTLER was attempting to accomplish. [redacted] considered BUTLER to be a religious passive leader.

Subsequent to the introduction of [redacted] and BUTLER, [redacted] detected a change in BUTLER's ministry, i.e. aggressive vs. passive, and attributed this change to the influence exerted on BUTLER by [redacted]

b6

[redacted] counseled with BUTLER concerning the change in direction by BUTLER and that [redacted] was misleading BUTLER and the Aryan movement and that [redacted] had selfish or personal goals which were being accomplished through BUTLER.

Rev. BUTLER reassured [redacted] that the Aryan Nations goals were being pursued and that BUTLER would continue to lead the Aryan Nation movement. However, during and subsequent to the July, 1983, Aryan Nation Congress at Hayden Lake, Idaho, it became apparent to [redacted] that BUTLER had changed posture in the Aryan Nation movement and that [redacted] was more deeply involved in the direction in which the movement was headed.

On February 27, 1985, [redacted] appeared before the federal grand jury at Seattle, Washington. During his testimony [redacted]

ARDIE MCBREARTY, 59, is from Missouri and is believed to have been a former member of the "Covenant, the Sword, and the Arm of the Lord." He was recruited into The Order by [redacted]

On July 27, 1984, [redacted] met [redacted] at MCBREARTY's residence at Gentry, Arkansas. [redacted] received $140,000.00 during the meeting.

On August 3, 1984, MCBREARTY flew to Stuart, Florida, and later assisted [redacted] in the purchase of a voice stress analyzer in Miami, Florida. He has been active in the "security" and the "legal" activities of The Order/Bruderschweigen, and negotiated the purchase of a training camp in Idaho in August- September 1984, using the alias "Amos D. Able." The land was purchased under contract, with a $30,000 down payment and an agreement to pay $400-$500 per month. [redacted] authorized MCBREARTY to receive a lump sum payment of $100,000 in stolen money taken during the Ukiah armored car robbery, upon his joining The Order and assuming his duties.

[redacted] arranged for the payment of the $100,000.00 to MCBREARTY. The money was to be used by MCBREARTY to further the aims of the Order/Bruderschweigen and enhance MCBREARTY's position as head of intelligence.

MCBREARTY was also given the additional responsibility of operating a message center code named "Bear Trap." "Bear Trap" was to be used to procure legal assistance when any member of The Order was arrested, or taken into custody.

In September 1984, MCBREARTY traveled to San Francisco, California, with [redacted] and [redacted] for the purpose of giving a voice stress analysis test to Brinks employees [redacted] and [redacted]. MCBREARTY, et al. hoped to induce [redacted] and [redacted] into The Order and facilitate the planning of the robbery of the San Francisco Brinks vault. A tape recording recovered from a voice stress analyzer (found in [redacted]'s storage locker) contains a segment in which "The Professor" is administering a test and asking the applicant whether he realizes that by joining The Order he could be engaging in criminal activity which could lead to his imprisonment.

In October, 1984, MCBREARTY met [redacted] in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where MCBREARTY received firearms and ammunition which [redacted] had just purchased for The Order. MCBREARTY transported these items from Oklahoma to Idaho.

In December, 1984, MCBREARTY and [] met with [] [] MCBREARTY received an additional $10,000.00 which represented his salary.

[redacted] traveled to the east coast during the first two weeks of August, 1984 distributing proceeds from the Ukiah robbery to right wing leaders. [redacted]

[redacted] made an additional trip, at [redacted] direction, distributing money and recruiting new members for The Order. During their trip to the east coast [redacted]

[redacted] met [redacted] at ARDIE MCBREARTY's residence at Gentry, Arkansas. [redacted] received $140,000.00 representing his share from the robbery and an additional $100,000.00 with which to purchase military hardware for The Order.

Although somewhat redundant, Little Rock will repeat some of the information contained in its letterhead memorandum of July 2, 1987, so as to provide continuity and an appreciation of the full scope of this investigation.

A. HISTORY OF THE GROUP

In April, 1985, a warrant was obtained for the search of a 224-acre compound in Marion County, Arkansas. This militarily fortified compound was operated under the name, "The Covenant, The Sword, and the Arm of the Lord," (CSA) by right-wing extremist [redacted].

On April 21, 1985, approximately 400 federal and state law enforcement officers surrounded the CSA compound. After a three-day siege, [redacted] and his followers, together with Order/Bruderschweigen members [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] were arrested. [redacted] and [redacted] had resided at the CSA compound for approximately three months under assumed names.

RE: CSA

Among the items seized during the search of the CSA compound were a 30-gallon drum of cyanide, numerous automatic assault rifles, a fully operational LAW guided rocket, a Lewis machine gun, handguns, rifles, C-4 explosives, land mines, hand grenades, and thousands of rounds of ammunition.

During the investigation of [] and other members of the CSA, it was learned they had perpetrated various acts of violence including the firebombing of a homosexual church in Springfield, Missouri; the firebombing of the Jewish Community Center in Bloomington, Indiana; the bombing of an interstate natural gas pipeline at Fulton, Arkansas; the robbery and murder of a Jewish pawnshop owner in Texarkana, Arkansas; the conversion of numerous assault weapons to fully automatic; and the manufacture and stockpiling of explosive devices.

[] was subsequently convicted of a RICO violation and conspiracy to possess illegal firearms. []'s second-in-command, pled guilty to conspiracy to possessing illegal firearms; and [] [], elder of CSA, entered a guilty plea to a RICO violation, with the predicate offense being the bombing of a pipeline and the arson of a residence.

On August 5, 1986, a series of interviews with [] began. These interviews were initially conducted by SA [] of the Little Rock Division and SA [] Seattle Division.

RE: CSA

During this meeting, it was agreed that the various individuals and their respective organizations needed to unite in an effort to overthrow the United States Government. The catalyst for this agreement appeared to be the death of tax protestor GORDON KAHL, who was killed the previous month in Smithville, Arkansas, in a shootout with federal, state, and local law enforcement officers. During the private meeting, LOUIS R. BEAM, JR., stated GORDON KAHL was the first hero in the second American revolution.

It was agreed by those present that their movement would be financed through robberies and counterfeiting. It was also agreed that bombings, assassinations, and the polluting of municipal water supplies should take place in order to cause civil unrest. RICHARD G. BUTLER and ROBERT E. MILES stated that their activities should be along the lines of those discussed in the "Turner Diaries."

Those in attendance at the second private leadership conference agreed to the following acts in the furtherance of their objective:

1. The movement would be financed by robberies and counterfeiting.
2. Assassination of federal officials, politicians, and members of the Jewish faith.
3. Bombings.
4. The polluting of municipal water supplies.
5. The procurement of false identification.
6. The training of individuals in urban and guerrilla warfare.

RE: CSA

E. SUMMARY OF INVESTIGATION DURING PRECEDING SIX MONTHS

On April 24, 1987, an indictment against 14 right-wing terrorists was unsealed, and shortly thereafter all but one subject was located and arrested. This last individual was [REDACTED], who is charged with Seditious Conspiracy in violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 2384, in that he and others conspired to overthrow the Government of the United States by force. [REDACTED] is a former Grand Dragon of the KKK in Texas and reportedly advocates that the Aryan people begin carrying totesacks on their belts. These totesacks were to be used to hold the heads of "government people" and Jews.

On June 24, 1987, IO # [REDACTED] was issued for [REDACTED] and on July 14, 1987, he was designated as a Top Ten Most Wanted Fugitive. On August 25, 1987, Little Rock hosted a conference attended by agents from the principal lead offices such as Dallas, Houston, and San Antonio. This conference quickly identified a multitude of potential fugitive leads which led to extremely imaginative and exhaustive investigative avenues. These techniques included, but were not limited to, the use of informants, mail covers, computerization of all factual information and telephone numbers, video recordings as part of physical surveillance, tracking devices, subpoenaed toll records, numerous interviews of family members and associates, document examinations, and finally a surreptitious search warrant of the residence of one of [REDACTED]'s associates. This search led to the one piece of evidence that served to locate and apprehend [REDACTED] personnel assigned to the Legal Attache, Mexico City, determined that [] frequented the bookstore and was using it as a "mail drop." Surveillance at this location identified [] and over a several day period his ultimate residence was located. The []

b6
b7C
b7D

A large amount of valuable evidence was seized from the [] residence, some of which will be used to indict persons who harbored [] during his time as a federal fugitive.

The [] fugitive investigation has consumed a large portion of Little Rock's investigative efforts, but a considerable number of hours was also devoted to developing an order of proof for the trial, which is expected to last three to four months. The government's case will be presented through some 214 witnesses and 2,000 trial exhibits. Thus, much of the last six months has been devoted to "fine tuning" this evidence, reinter-viewing a large number of witnesses, and locating new witnesses.

RE: CSA

Sources of the Omaha and Springfield Divisions have advised that [] of Harrison, Arkansas, the [] for the Ku Klux Klans of America, is planning numerous demonstrations for several days prior to the February 16, 1988, trial date. At this time there is no clear indication of planned violence, but [] is trying to influence a large number of persons to participate in the demonstrations and rallies. Also, [] is actively engaged in the raising of funds for the various defendants.

Little Rock is in the process of preparing itself for a lengthy trial, coupled with monitoring the activities of those persons outside the courtroom that might in some way try to influence the outcome of this prosecution. Little Rock anticipates, during January, 1988, requesting the presence of selected members of the Hostage Rescue Team (HRT) to participate in a conference at Fort Smith, Arkansas, to be attended by the U. S. Marshal's Service, U. S. Attorney's staff, Federal Protective Service, Arkansas State Police, Fort Smith Police Department, and the Sebastian County Sheriff's Office. It is imperative that all of these agencies clearly understand the potential threat to be derived from this lengthy trial and thereafter the responsibilities of each agency to combat this potential threat.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1987

AG
202-633-2010

Attorney General Edwin Meese III and Director William H. Webster of the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today that federal grand juries in Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Denver, Colorado, have returned indictments charging 15 individuals with multiple violations of federal statutes, including sedition, or conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United States, and the murder of a radio talk show host in Denver in June 1984.

The defendants were alleged to have engaged in such activities as part of their affiliation with white supremacist organizations.

The Fort Smith indictment, returned under seal by the grand jury on Tuesday, was unsealed today after eight defendants were arrested by the FBI. The other seven are already serving sentences at federal correctional facilities for previous convictions. The Denver indictment was returned today.

"These indictments show that we will not tolerate unjust criminal activities by any group seeking to overthrow our system of government," Meese said.

Meese said the federal grand jury at Fort Smith returned an indictment charging 10 individuals with participating in a seditious conspiracy between July 1983 and March 1985 to overthrow the government. The defendants in the Fort Smith indictment:

Richard Girnt Butler, 69, leader of the Aryan Nations Church of Jesus Christ Christian, Hayden Lake, Idaho;

Robert Edward Miles, 62, leader of the Mountain Church of Jesus Christ the Savior, Cohoctah, Michigan, who has been affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan;

Louis Ray Beam, Jr., 40, Dallas, Texas, who has been affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan and with the Aryan Nations Church of Jesus Christ Christian;

Robert Neil Smalley, 31, Fort Smith, Arkansas;

David Eden Lane, 48, incarcerated at Marion, Illinois, who has been affiliated with the Aryan Nations Church of Jesus Christ Christian and The Order;

Ardie McBrearty, 59, incarcerated at El Reno, Oklahoma, who has been affiliated with The Order;

Bruce Carroll Pierce, 32, incarcerated at Leavenworth, Kansas, who has been affiliated with The Order and the Aryan Nations Church of Jesus Christ Christian;

Richard Joseph Scutari, 39, incarcerated at Leavenworth, Kansas, who has been affiliated with The Order;

Andrew Virgil Barnhill, 30, incarcerated at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, who has been affiliated with The Order;

Richard Wayne Snell, 56, incarcerated at Texarkana, Texas.

Assistant Attorney General William Bradford Reynolds, head of the Department's Civil Rights Division, said a one-count indictment was returned today in U.S. District Court in Denver against Lane, Pierce, Scutari and Jean Margaret Craig in connection with the murder of radio talk show host Alan Berg. Craig is currently imprisoned in Pleasanton, California,

The four were charged with one count each of violently interfering with Berg's right to engage in and enjoy his employment. The indictment charged that the defendants acted because of his race, religion, national origin and employment.

Berg was shot with a submachine gun the night of June 18, 1984, as he got out of his car in front of his apartment. Berg, who was Jewish, frequently used his show to attack and embarrass white supremacist movements and their leaders.

All defendants in the slaying are members of The Order.

Reynolds praised the investigation conducted by the FBI and the Denver police department. The case was presented to the federal grand jury by attorneys in the Civil Rights Division and in the office of Robert N. Miller, the U.S. Attorney for Colorado.

The Fort Smith indictment said the 10 defendants, as part of the conspiracy to overthrow the government, would finance these efforts by armed robberies and counterfeiting.

The indictment also charged that the defendants planned assassinations of federal officials, including a federal judge, and members of ethnic groups by bombings. They also plotted destruction of utilities, polluting of water supplies, establishing guerilla warfare training camps and procuring false identification to allow the participants to remain unidentified, according to the indictment.

Snell and four others were also charged in the Fort Smith indictment with conspiring to murder the chief United States District judge of the Western District of Arkansas and a Special Agent of the FBI assigned to the FBI's Little Rock field office.

Charged, along with Snell, in the alleged conspiracy to murder were:

William H. Wade, 68, Smithville, Arkansas;

Ivan Ray Wade, 34, Smithville, Arkansas;

Lambert Miller, 36, Springfield, Missouri;

David Michael McGuire, 24, St. Louis, Missouri.

Snell, McGuire and Miller were further charged with willfully attempting to murder the federal judge and the FBI agent.

The Fort Smith indictment also charged that Scutari and Barnhill transported more than $5,000 in stolen money from Idaho to Arkansas and that Smalley received more than $5,000 in stolen money.

Director Webster said the indictments and arrests were the result of an extensive investigation by the FBI throughout the United States with the cooperation of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, U.S. Secret Service, the U.S. Marshals Service and the Bureau of Prisons, as well as state and local law enforcement agencies.

(MORE)

"The indictments demonstrate that the FBI will continue to bring to justice those individuals who use criminality and violence in the name of political or social change," Webster said.

Maximum penalties for the charges in the two indictments:

-- Seditious conspiracy (18 U.S.C. 2384), $20,000 fine or 20 years in prison;

-- Interfering with a federally protected right, resulting in death (18 U.S.C. 245(b)(2)(C), life imprisonment;

-- Interstate transportation of stolen property (18 U.S.C. 2314), $10,000 and 10 years in prison;

-- Receipt of stolen money (18 U.S.C. 2315), $10,000 and 10 years in prison;

-- Conspiracy to murder federal officials (18 U.S.C. 1117), life imprisonment;

-- Attempt to murder federal officials (18 U.S.C. 1114), life imprisonment.

ADDENDUM: CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION; HHM:PSJ 2/6/87

By the attached teletype, the Little Rock Division is requesting that one Special Agent (SA) (SA [redacted] San Francisco Division), be temporarily assigned to Little Rock for an additional 30 days, commencing February 9, 1987, and ending March 10, 1987. Little Rock by teletype dated October 20, 1986, had requested three SA's be temporarily assigned to the Little Rock Division. Two of the Special Agents were requested for a 30 day period and a fourth for a 75 day period. These SA's were to assist in the investigation of numerous right-wing extremists. By addendum to Little Rock's October 20, 1986, teletype, approval was obtained in this matter. Two SA's were assigned to Little Rock for a period of 30 days beginning December 2, 1986, and one SA was assigned for a 75 day period. By teletype dated December 31, 1986, Little Rock requested that one of the two SA's assigned to Little Rock for a 30 day period SA [redacted] be extended for an additional 30 day period. By addendum to Little Rock's December 31, 1986, teletype, approval was obtained for SA [redacted] to be extended for an additional 30 day period. Since SA [redacted] has been assigned to Little Rock's Division, he has been engaged in developing all the elements necessary to charge various persons with assaulting Federal Officers, to include United States District Court [redacted] [redacted] Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] and FBI SA [redacted] SA [redacted] has reviewed mountains of evidence and interviewed numerous people.

Little Rock believes that in order for them to return indictments against several major leaders of the right-wing movement by the middle of March, 1987, not less than 22 interviews of subjects and associates are necessary. Little Rock also feels that it is necessary to review telephone records, bank records, and tape conversations between these leaders. Although [redacted] will not be involved in all of the interviews or all of the reviewing of tapes and records, he will be involved in a large majority of them.

The SAC Little Rock has advised that all of his personnel are fully assigned on critical and priority matters and he has canceled all extended leave, in-services, and the physical training program. As such, Little Rock is procluded from assigning additional agents to this major investigation from its current complement.

The cost of temporarily assigning an agent to Little Rock for a period of 30 days, will be:
$73.00/day X 30 days = $2,190.00.

The Criminal Investigative Division, Domestic Terrorism Unit concurs with Little Rock's request.

Little Rock has requested they be allowed to rent an automobile for the agent on temporary assignment. The Domestic Terrorism Unit concurs with this request in view of the non-availability of appropriate vehicles within the Little Rock fleet which could logically be utilized in this ongoing investigation. The cost of renting the vehicle will be $186.00/week X 4 weeks = $744.00. Because of threats that have been made by various right-wing elements against FBI Agents, these cars should be rented covertly.

The Domestic Terrorism Unit recommends that the funding for the temporary assignment to Little Rock be allocated from the Emergency Investigative Fund so that field office travel budgets will not be adversely affected by this investigation.

The SAC San Francisco concurs with the 30 day extension of SA [redacted]. This matter has also been coordinated with SSA [redacted] of the Special Agent Transfer Unit, and [redacted] of Automotive Management Unit.
